
Title: The Weapons

Author: The Witch

To first ensure that the weapons be able receive the
incantation, they must be of the highest craftsmanship. Being of metal, only the
darkest iron will
suffice.

Once crafted,
they must be cured in
the smoke of a fire
amended with dead
wood and steeped in a
bath tinged with executioner's cap.

At this point, they are satisfactory vessels
for the spell.
They are now
ready for their baptism in the blood of a shade or spectre, for the
semicorpreal vitae
of these creatures
will begin the plane
shifting nature of these weapons.
Finally, they must be carried through a
moongate to complete
their planular
instability.
